

The State of Washington

Proclamation

WHEREAS, education support professionals are involved in nearly every aspect of education – maintaining buildings and grounds, preparing and serving meals, keeping school facilities clean and orderly, assisting in the classroom, providing over 60 percent of all instructional hours to special education, English Language Learner, and opportunity gap students, performing and conducting research activities, providing information technology and media services, administrative support functions, safe transportation, and a secure and healthy environment, and many other specialized services; and

WHEREAS, these dedicated individuals deserve recognition and thanks for the outstanding work they do for this state, their communities, and the students enrolled in Washington's public schools and universities; and

WHEREAS, there are over 62,000 education support professionals working with, and helping children in, Washington's universities and public schools; and

WHEREAS, education support professionals are instrumental in fulfilling the state's responsibility to educate all students; and

WHEREAS, by supporting the learning environment, education support professionals are crucial partners with teachers, parents, administrators, and school boards;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, Governor of the state of Washington, do hereby proclaim March 12-16, 2018, as

Education Support Professionals Week in Washington, and I encourage all people in our state to join me in this special observance.

Signed this 16th day of February, 2018
